To whom it may concern,

Yoav Shlomov worked at our school in the 2012-2013 school year.

In his work, he taught Music Theory, Guitar private and group lessons and ensemble instruction For high school students.

He taught various musical topics such as Ear training, Harmony and basic scales, Arpeggios, Jazz, Improvisation, blues and musical ensembles training.

Yoav is serious, professional and responsible. In addition, he was devoted to his students, created a good personal relationships with them, and helped them develop artistic and musical discipline.

I have no doubt that Yoav will contribute in his unique way, anywhere he will attend.

Nadav Rubinstien.
