To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept the following as a formal recommendation for Yoav Shlomov, with whom I've had the pleasure of mentoring during the time he studied with us at The New School.

It was indeed a pleasure to work with a student as sincere, dedicated and hard-working as Yoav. Without a doubt, he will be an important addition to your program in Israel.

I encourage you to request that he share some of the valuable information he acquired while here at The New School.

I recommend a favorable response from your review panel on Yoav's behalf.

If you should need to speak with me further, please do not hesitate to reach me at any of the contact information herein.

Sincerely,

Reggie Workman
Tenured Full Time Professor at
The New School College of Performing Arts
